NINE MONTANA FOOTBALL ALL-STARS
TO JOIN GRIZZLY FOOTBALL TEAM
IN AUGUST

MISSOULA--

Nine of the participants in the Montana High School East-West Shrine game will be competing for the University of Montana Grizzlies this fall. The game is at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 9 in Great Falls' Memorial Stadium.

The East has the largest contingent of Grizzlies-to-be. The group includes Lewistown's Allan Powell; Great Fall High School's Brian Salonen; Havre's Tim Wynne; C. M. Russell's Gary Lowry and Fort Benton's Dean Rominger.

Future UM players playing for the West team include Whitefish's Steve Sword; Kris Kerpa from Philipsburg; Stevensville's Jim Scott and Bigfork's Doug Grant.

"We are very excited about the Montana all-stars who are joining our program," said Grizzly coach Larry Donovan. "There is a lot of talent in that group."

The Grizzlies begin fall drills on Aug. 25.
